MAKING IT PAY.-Mr. P. L. Rose, agent of the Western N. C. Railroad at Statesville, has informed the editor of the American that, during the month of August, 150,819 pounds of dried fruit were shipped from that point alone by that road.

If that amount was shipped from one station, how much has been shipped from the various stations on the roads west of Raleigh? We would be pleased to have the figures, as we are confident that a heavy business in this trade alone has been done during the past summer.

GREATLY NEEDED .- When Miss Dix, many years ago, visited our city, in the in terest of suffering humanity, and urged our Legislature then in session to build an Asylum for the Insane, opposition sprung up and the benevolent lady almost despaired of her mission; but, in a written appeal, she succeeded, and the State erected the present building and named the place "Dix Hill." Then it was thought by all that the accommodations would be ample for all that

Under the benevolent auspices of the State, carried forward by Dr. Grissom and his competent corps, many have been restored to their reason, and families scattered throughout the State have been made to

INTERNATIONAL POSTAL ORDERS .- AT agements have been entered into between the United States and Switzerland, whereby the Swiss in this country may obtain money orders on their own country, and thus safely emit a portion of their own earnings to their native homes, if they desire to do so The exchange of postal orders between the two countries is to be effected through the agency of two post offices termed "International Exchange Offices."

The International Exchange Office on the of the United States is New York ar that on the part of Switzerland is Bale. Certain money-order post offices in this country, designated for the purpose by the Postmaster General, are authorized to issue money orders on the Postmaster at New York, payable to beneficiaries in Switzerland, and to pay orders issued by that postmaster, for sums by the Post Department of Switzerland, for payment to beneficiaries in the United States. Hence, an International Money Order cannot be drawn by a postmaster in either country directly upon a postmaster in the other, but must be drawn upon the International Exchange Office of the country in which the order is issued.

An International Postal Order must not e drawn for a larger sum than fifty dollars in United States currency, and must not con tain a fractional part of a cent.

The fees for the issue of Internations Postal Orders are the same as for domestic money orders, to-wit: On orders not exseeding $20, ten cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, fifteen cents; over $30, and not exceeding $40, twenty cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, twenty-five cents. THE COTTON CROP IN GEORGIA AS COM PARED WITH THE COTTON CROP IN NORTH CAROLINA .- Allowing for the long continued drought in the South, we are prepared to say, that the crop of cotton in Georgia is not superior in quality to the crop of our own State. Having travelled over twothirds of the State of Georgia, within the last two weeks, we made it our business to take notes, and to examine the farms as best we could, in order to the comparison which we now draw. Our observations, impartially made, lead us to the conclusion that while Georgia is far ahead of North Carolina in works of internal improvements, buildings and stock-raising, our farmers or planters lose nothing in the compar-

From Augusta to Atlanta, from Atlanta to Columbus, from Columbus to Savannah, and back to Macon, the cotton appeared no better than the cotton raised in Middle and Eastern North Carolina-in fact, we saw but little that promised so good a yield to the acre as the cotton east of Raleigh. We were told, that on ordinary land, the planter did well to make half a bag to the acre while on the best bottom land, one bag or 500 lbs, of lint to the acre was considered a generous yield. We do as well as this and never expect less. As we remarked, in the outset, all allowance has been made for the drought of this year-still, we were told, that the above figures will hold good when the seasons are propitious.

As a general thipg, where cotton will grow, corn also can be grown-then, working by this rule, we have as good corn land as are the lands of Georgia. We write this not to detract from the State of Georgia any of her greatness, but to satisfy those of our farmers who are anxious to go South, that they are doing quite as well in the Old North State as they could do either in Geor gia, South Carolina or Mississippi.

Our observations also extended through these States with the same results; and we prefer either Georgia or South Carolina to Mississippi, both as regards farming and on the score of health. Good water in Mississippi is hard to obtain—while in Georgia, in and around Atlanta, and the ferret out and bring to justice these misble characters, and it would redound to honor of the State, and the peace and Drity, if they would emulate the example he Sheriff of Robeson county, and order half the county, if found necessary, to the arrests desired. We were told on yesterday that a gentleman from a county West of Raleigh, visited the Dr. a few days since to be treated for what is known as near sightedness. His eyes were examined, and glasses fitted to them, when the happy recipient exclaimed with joy, "I have seen more in the last half hour, than in all my life, before!" In our own county of Wake, there are several localities on the Neuse river admirably adapted for such works. At Weldon the water power available cannot be estimated, and at that particular locality at no distant day we expect to see crected a cotton factory which will give employment to several hundred hands. IMMIGRATION.-There is a great deal of humbuggery in this world, after all, we must admit. The popular mind, ever eager after a change, seizes upon every new idea, until it runs down; and then the morbid appetite craves something new, and is never satisfied until another idea is brought out, -an so on, unto the end of time. For about two years the restless spirits of our land have conceived the idea that the importation of Swiss labor was all that was needed to make the South blosssom as the rose. Large sums of money have been expended, and the experiment tried, only to satisfy the public that they, the Swiss, are but human at last; are incapable of doing more or better work than the laborers we already have among us. The Swiss, then, will be let alone; and in their stead, the brilliant thought, that the Chinaman is the fellow. He is, emphatically, "Cheap John," and we might add, ignorant John, also, We have not the least idea that John Chinaman will answer for the farm, or anything else that is highminded or honorable. They are, as a people, lazy and thievish, and worse than all, heathen-worshippers of idolsknow nothing of the Living God, and studiously refuse to be taught. On the score of morality, we are opposed to Chinese labor-opposed to introducing them into our families to corrupt our children-to pilfer our closets,-and besmean our beds with their filthy carcases.

Then, what do we favor? We are emphatically in favor of employing the laborers we already have among us. They were bred the presence of his attorney about the value of honesty. "Honesty!" said the attorney, "what is honesty?" retorted the gentleman;

THE PATENT PALMER ARM AND LEG

1318 L THESE celebrated artificial limbs are again brought to the attention of the Medicar. Faculty and people of the South by the Original Inventor. They have been twenty-three years before the public, and have secured, both in this country and Europe, the unqualified endorsement of the MOST DISTINGUISHED SURGEONS OF THE WORLD, KORE THAN A HUNDRED OF WHOM HAVE GIVEN PUBLIC TRETHONY.

The Society de Chirurgie of Paris, perhaps the first surgical tribunal of the world, after twelve years investigation, pronounced decidedly in favor of the unquestioned superiority of the Palmen Limbs.

Dr. Palmer.

Dr. Palmer directs the manufacture of his Patrix Leg and Arm, sided by men of the best qualifications and greatest experience. He is specially commissioned by the Government, and has the patronage of the prominent Officers of the Army and Navy. TWENTY GENERALS, North and South, and more than a thousand less distinguished officers and soldiers of north Armins, have worn the Palmer Limbs on active duty, while still greater numbers of eminent civilians are, by their aid, filling important positions, and effectually concealing their misfortune—the whole number reaching TEN THOUSAND PERSONS WEARING PALMER LIMMS.

OFFICE SUP. U. S. A. GENERAL HOSPITALS, CINCINNATI, OHIO, March 15th, 1866. Having acted as Medical Director during three years of the war, it became my duty to give orders for artificial limbs to mutilated soldiers, and as DR. B. F. PALMER'S LIMBS were greatand as DR. B. F. PALMER'S LIMES were greatby preferred, a large majority of the orders were given on him to furnish the necessary limbs. So iar as my knowledge extends, the limbs furnished by Dr. Palmer have given most satisfaction, and this also is the Latimony of hospital severals and non-commissioned effects on duty at the various hospitals in my charge, who have had opportunities of seeing the men after they had received and used the limbs furnished to them; and I have therefore no hesitation in saving that and I have therefore no healtation in saying that, in my opinion, they are preferable to all others. W.M.S. KING, Brevet Colonel and Surgeon, U. S. A.

DR. B. FRANK PALMER—Dear Sir:—It affords me much pleasure to acknowledge the great success of your professional treatment in my case, which is one of the most difficult kind to treat, which is one of the most difficult kind to treat, my foot being amputated by the Chopart method. The mechanism is complete in all respects—light, comfortable and strong—and I walk perfectly. I am convinced, after careful examination of a great number of patents, that the Palmer limbs are superior to all others, and strongly recommend the adoption of them by my multisted comrades of the South, jeeling assored that no other manufacturer can produce a limb so perfect.

The limb has given no pain or trouble in all that time. I walk given no pain or trouble in all that time. I walk and a person not acquainted would not notice lameness. DE. B. FRANK PALMER—Dear Sir:—I am happy to inform you that the trial I have now given your Patent Leg, leaves me no reason to doubt that it deserves all that has been said in its praise. I am convinced that it is the Dear Patent Leg in the world, and I shall be glad to learn that my mutilated friends in the South are so fortunate as to select this incomparable substitute. My limb was amputated within two inches of the knee, in consequence of a wound received in battle in front of Richmond. On the first trial of the Palmer Leg. I was able to walk without a cane, and with the utmost comfort and facility. I shall avail myself of an early opportunity to show the limb to Governor Ora, from whom I had the honor to receive an introduction to you, and I am sure the Governor will gladly recognize the great superiority of your beneficent invention, and send others to you for rellef

Dran Sin:—When about to leave your city in December last, you desired me to communicate the degree of success I should attain in the use of your "Artificial Arm." I now do so with pleasure; first, because it is but just that you should enjoy the benefits which properly ought to accrue to the exertion of ingenuity so humane in its designs and beneficial in its results to the mained; and because the benefit I continue to enjoy from its use, places me under obligations to the author of so great a boon to man. I am free, therefore, to say in all candor that your Arm is a decided success, and affords me conveniences and comforts quite beyond my most sanguine expectations. I was a staff officer in the late Confederate States army; was wounded in the left arm on 3d April, 1865, and suffered its amputation on May 8th following. My stump is only two and a half inches long. Your Arm was attached December 22d, since which time I have worn it every day, and frequently at night while saleep, without the slightest inconvenience or annoyance.
